Clyde Farm Campground is nestled in Clyde River in the beautiful South Shore region of Nova Scotia. Located halfway between Barrington and Shelburne, Clyde River is an excellent spot for fishing, canoeing, swimming, and more!

There is a boat ramp directly across from the campground for loading and unloading boats at your leisure. Pug Lake is a short walk from the campground, with beautiful, clear water and a shallow beach area where young children can play. Our accommodations include 21 overnight sites (Electrical hook-up [15/30-amp], water hook-up, un-serviced) and 10 seasonal sites and dump station. 26 sites have water and electric, including 3 camping cabins and 5 tent sites. The three camping cabins are equipped with a small fridge and microwave.

Flush toilets, showers, washer, fire pits, wood, and ice are available. Also, families can enjoy the playground, outdoor pool, horseshoes, badminton net, and basketball hoop. We are pet friendly!

Visa, MasterCard, American Express, cash and e-transfers are accepted. Book by calling our number.
